

Lidlington Primary School - Writing Overview

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
YR	Rosie's Walk – Story How to Catch a Star - Story Penguins – Report/Fact File	Where The Wild Things Are – Story Jack and the Jellybean Stalk – Traditional tale with a twist Chocolate Mug Cake – Instructions	All Aboard the London Bus – Story We're Going on a Bear Hunt – Story If Sharks Disappeared – Report
Y1	The Way Back Home – Story Firework Night – Poetry Pinocchio – Traditional tale	The Queen's Hat – Story When I am by myself – Rhyming poem The Train Ride – Story	Song of the Sea – Irish myth Ice Planet Adventure – Persuasive leaflet Our trip to the woods – Recount Wombat goes Walkabout – Story
Y2	Little Red Reading Hood – Traditional tale with a twist Malala's Magic Pencil – Biography Hibernation – Non-chronological report My Christmas Star – Story	The Desk Diddler – Poetry The Great Fire of London – Diary The Crow's Tale – Story The Day the Crayons Quit – Persuasive letter	Plants – Information text The Building Boy – Story How to catch a dragon – Instructions If I were in charge of the world – Poetry
Y3	The Happy Prince – Story My Strong Mind – Instructions I asked the little boy who couldn't see – Poetry	Dragons – Non-chronological report The Secret of Black Rock – Story How a Robot Dog Works – Explanation	Holiday Brochure – Persuasion The Street Beneath My Feet – Explanation Wolves in the Walls – Story
Y4	Journey – Story Feast - Animation story The Plague Village – Playscript Once Upon a Raindrop – Script for a factual tour	Float – Story The River – Poetry The Creature – Newspaper report	The Iron Man – Science fiction The Stroodle - Persuasive text Charlie and the Chocolate Factory - Story The Princess and the Pea – Traditional tale
Y5	The Explorer - narrative adventure Screen use - non-fiction balanced argument Emperor penguins - non-fiction non-chronological report	The Piano - narrative film Titanic - newspaper report One small step - narrative adventure Mars transmission - journal	Zoo - narrative fantasy Plastic pollution - non-fiction speech The highwayman - poetry